

COUNTY FLOOD
RELIEF QUOTA
IS DOUBLED

RED CROSS NOW ASKS $900
TO AID STRICKEN AREAS

Putnam County's assigned goal for Red Cross flood relief funds has been doubled, according to a wire received from National Red Cross. Originally striving to obtain voluntary contributions in the amount of $450, Red Cross workers locally are attempting to interest Putnam County citizens to create a fund of $900. to send to the flood stricken areas in Kansas, Missouri and Illinois. The increased assignment was given to all Red Cross chapters and came as a result of the survey of needs lately made in the devastated region.

Gilbert Reeves, formerly of Greencastle, and now located in Kansas City, Mo., where he is chief artist with Outdoor Advertising Co., gives a graphic account of the damage caused by flood waters as he saw it. Mr. and Mrs. Reeves and two children left today to return to their home.

Mr. Reeves stated that sights created by water destruction actually brought physical illness to many beholders. He told of one area in Kansas City, that had once been a district of homes that now is a level stretch of open land. Persons who had been housed there are being taken care of in schools and public buildings. Temporary lodgings shall be arranged for them until the twenty-two permanent apartment buildings being planned can be constructed.

He told, further, of water coming in to the extent of seven and a half feet, to the building where his business is located. Countless valuable records were lost and only damage was almost beyond estimation.

Total funds collected locally now stand at $261. Most recent contributions have come from Putnam County Church groups. These include: E. Washington Baptist Church, $11.10; the Baptist Church, $16.; Fillmore Church, $16.95; Reelsville Church, $13.; Reelsville Federated Church, $16.55; Gobin Memorial, $1.50; Clinton Falls, $25.

Donations are being accepted at Red Cross office and at all Putnam County banks.

BIG TOMATOES

If anybody has said that Putnam County isn't a tomato growing county they would have to swallow their words after seeing the tomatoes being grown by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawley on their place south of Putnamville. Mr. and Mrs. Crawley brought to the Banner office two tomatoes that weighed together five pounds one ounce. The larger of the two tomatoes tipped the scale at two and three quarters pounds, and measured over nine inches in width. Mr. Crawley says the tomatoes are the beef heart variety, and that he bought his plants from a Greencastle greenhouse.

Demonstration
At Lane Farm

There will be a county-wide Sod Waterway demonstration on the Francis Lane farm two miles west of Somerset church on Thursday, August 23, beginning promptly at 1:00 p. m. FEW FARMERS
ATTEND FARM
PLAN MEETING

ANOTHER SESSION PLANNED IN ASSEMBLY ROOM
NEXT TUESDAY

What are the farmers in Putnam county thinking about? That was the question raised Wednesday evening at a meeting attended by fewer than a dozen men in the county agent's office. P. B. Hutcheson, chairman of the Production Marketing Association, served as chairman of the meeting and he asked this question. Those attending could not answer, because hardly any two farmers think the same way.

This was the question raised when the "Family Farm's Future" was discussed. Charles F. Brannan, secretary of agriculture is behind the movement to make a nation-wide survey to find out what the farmers think of their agencies, there being dozens of them. Wednesday evening such organizations as Agricultural Research Administration, Bureau of Economics, County agricultural agency, Production and Marketing Administration, Soil Conservation Service, Forest Service, Farm Credit Administration, Farm Home Administration, R. E. M. C., Federal Crop Insurance Corp., and others.

To get at the bottom of what farmers are thinking, Mr. Brannan had prepared for distribution a booklet of 126 pages, printed on both sides. In addition, pamphlets telling in detail what the Family Farm is and discussing it, were distributed.

No one at the meeting knew what was behind the plan to get this survey or what will be done with it after it is secured. The plan is being spear-headed by The PMA, and must be in the hands of the state or national organizations by September 15, and to get a cross section of what farmers think, a general meeting will be held in the Assembly room on the evening of August 27 at eight o'clock.

Russ Open New Uranium Mine

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(UP)—Russia has opened a new uranium mine in Czechoslovakia and has started vigorous prospecting of other areas for the vital atomic metal, underground sources reported today.

The new uranium pit was said to be at Hermanov Seis near Jachymov, Czechoslovakia. Jachymov has the largest uranium mine behind the iron curtain.

Soviet engineers and highly-skilled workers from Jachymov were reported rushed to the new uranium find at Hermanov Seis. The pit has been put into production, but its output is not known.

The atomic developments were reported by the Liberty Legion, an underground organization, through the Committee for Liberation of Slovakia.

The Liberty Legion said Soviet engineers are searching for uranium in the areas of Kremnica, Spiavnic and Banská Bystrica in Slovakia—the eastern part of Czechoslovakia. Mines there long have turned out gold, silver and copper.

The Russians, in addition to searching for uranium, were reported to be industrializing Slovakia, which touches the Soviet Union. A large iron works capable of turning out 1,000,000 tons of pig iron annually is going up at Kosice, and Slovakian coal miners have been ordered to triple production to fuel the plant, according to the underground reports. A new hydroelectric plant to serve 16 war plants was reported under construction.

V. S. Krajcovic, chairman of the Committee for Liberation, said these projects explain the underground's recent reports of mass deportations of Czechs and Slovaks to new industrial areas in Slovakia, which heretofore has been largely agricultural.

A broadcast of the Communist radio at Prague apparently confirmed the underground's reports of forced deportations. Prague said that 77,000 administrative workers have been transferred to "production."

OFFICIAL FACES TRIAL

Richmond, Ind., Aug. 16.—(INS)—A Richmond city official today faced trial in city court today for failure to have a driver's license.

He is Don Johnson, head of the city trash and garbage collection department, whose car was struck by an automobile driven by Mary K. Hensley, who swerved to avoid striking a child.

After Johnson insisted that she go with him to the police station, an officer asked Johnson to show his driver's license. He pulled it out of his billfold, but it had expired last year.

UN PLANES HIT
TRUCK CONVOYS
IN RED AREAS

8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 16.—(UP)—United Nations bombers and fighters struck heavily today at Communist truck convoys speeding reinforcements and supplies to the western and central fronts.

Low-lying clouds gave the enemy some cover, but returning pilots reported they attacked 300 vehicles today. They said they destroyed 50 and damaged 30 others.

The largest volume of traffic was sighted near Sinmak on the main Pyongyang-Kaesong highway in western Korea and in the Songchon and Yongdok areas in eastern Korea.

The situation on the ground was the quietest in recent days, an 8th Army spokesman said.

In the east, firmly-entrenched Communist forces on high ground between Kamsong and Inje turned back an allied attack Wednesday. The UN troops gave up their assault about midday without taking their objective.

Allied patrols in the west crossed the 38th parallel east of the cease-fire conference city of Kaesong and north of Korangpo, but ran into stubborn resistance. They returned to their own lines south of the parallel at dusk.

The 8th Army spokesman disclosed that Ethiopian troops have gone into action for the first time in Korea. He said they clashed with the Communists recently south of Kumsong, big Communist base of the central front.

Both Mitchell and Steele were before Justice of the Peace Oia T. Ellis shortly before noon. Mitchell pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence and was fined $25 and costs, a total of $36.25. His operator's license was also revoked for ninety days.

Steele pleaded guilty to the speeding charge and was fined $1 and costs.

WEST BERLIN
POLICE ALERTED FOR INVASION

RED YOUTHS FROM SOVIET SECTOR ARE HOLDING
"PEACE" RALLY

BERLIN, Aug. 16.—(UP)—Heavily reinforced Western Berlin police patrolled today along the Soviet sector of mid-town Berlin in fear of another "invasion" similar to yesterday's planned smash by 14,000 fanatical Red youths into the western sector of the city.

In hand-to-hand fighting yesterday 19 West Berlin police were injured, some seriously, police said. They reported they had arrested 116 Communist youths. The Communist rally headquarters reported this morning 413 blue-shirted "peace" delegates had been injured.

Police were alerted throughout the city to prevent the young delegates to the East Berlin rally from slipping into the West disguised as visitors and then suddenly massing and staging "peace" demonstrations.

This was the tactic followed yesterday when the first of one blue shirts infiltrated Western Berlin, then joined forces and started to demonstrate.

When some of the young "peace" demonstrators were stopped at the dividing line by West Berlin police, they entered the subways and came up behind the police lines to join the fray.

After an hour of battling police dispersed the youths with clubs and fire hoses.

The organization of the "invasion" was confirmed by an East Berlin policeman who was arrested with the Communist youths. Police said he told them the action had been planned by the "East Berlin rally headquarters."

After the riot the East German news service ADN reported the rally headquarters had "congratulated" the rioters on their "successful peace demonstration" and protested Western Berlin police action.

However, the Greencastle Rotary Club won by 20 strokes from the Kiwanis Club.

Composing the Rotary team were James R. Pence, Herb Blocker, Carroll B. Hammond, Ernest H. Collins, Kenneth Eitel, Maynard Shonkwiler, Harry Moore, Rexell A. Boyd and Ross Azbell. WEATHER BALLOON?

Greencastle people became agitated last night when an object appeared in the sky, apparently to the south and was traveling westward at a low rate.

It is believed to have been a weather balloon released on the west coast. The Indianapolis weather man has been talking about it during the past few nights. He said it could reach an altitude of 70,000 feet.

Many looked at it through high power telescopes, but it was too high to get full details on it. Dr. William Edington at the DePauw Observatory, probably saw more of it than anyone else.

LATE NEWS

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Police guarded two women and two assistant state's attorneys today while more than 1,000 patrolmen searched Chicago's southside for a condemned murderer who escaped from the county jail after beating a guard to death.

Twice Harry Williams, 20-year old killer and rapist sentenced to be electrocuted Sept. 14, has eluded capture by minutes since his daring escape from a "death row" cell Tuesday night, setting off the "shoot to kill" manhunt. The two women being guarded had testified against Williams or aided in his capture.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(INS)—President Truman canceled today that Gen. Eisenhower may be the Democratic presidential candidate in 1952 but added tartly that the nation has more important matters confronting it than politics.

As for his own possible candidacy, the chief executive told his news conference that he still is not ready to declare himself one way or the other.

NOVARA, Italy, Aug. 16.

(INS)—The public prosecutor at Novara denied today published reports that the Court of Assizes at Novara has asked for the extradition of two former U. S. army men accused of murdering their wartime commanding officer at the O. S. S.

The U. S. Defense Department has named a former lieutenant and former sergeant as the slayers of Maj. William V. Holahan in Italy in 1944.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 16

(INS)—The commanding officer of Lockbourne Air Force Base confirmed reports today that one of his jet fighter planes accidentally fired into two houses, an auto and a trailer today in the community of Groveport, southeast of Columbus.

Col George Humbrecht said some 1,700 rounds of ammunition from two .50 caliber machine guns were expended in the accidental firing but that only four of them did damage.

He said the electrically operated machine guns apparently short-circuited on a plane which developed difficulty on the take-off.

No one was reported injured.

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 16

(UP)—A thundering explosion ripped through four or five tanks at Standard Oil's huge North Baton Rouge refinery today, igniting a raging fire and breaking windows three miles away.

Two unidentified men were killed and "at least 12" hurt, according to W. B. Cotton, Jr., public relations director for Standard Oil.

Four or five were seriously injured, Cotton said, and these were rushed to Our Lady of the Lake Sanitarium. The less seriously injured were taken to the sanitarium earlier.

The explosion blew a column of smoke hundreds of feet into the air.

COMMITTEE TO SEEK SOLUTION
OF DEADLOCK

REDS ACCEPT UN PLAN IN KOREAN CEASE-FIRE
TALKS

UN ADVANCE BASE BE-LOW KAESONG, Korea, Aug. 16.—(UP)—Communist cease-fire negotiators today accepted a United Nations proposal to turn the disputed question of a Korean armistice buffer zone over to a subcommittee for solution.

The subcommittee will begin its work at 11 a. m. tomorrow (9 p. m. today EDT) and the main negotiations will be recessed until the subcommittee makes its recommendations.

At the request of the Reds, the subcommittee will comprise two delegates from each side instead of one each as originally proposed by the UN representatives.

Maj. Gen. Henry I. Hodes, deputy chief of staff of the 8th Army, and one other delegate still to be named will represent the UN on the subcommittee.

The Red representatives will be Maj. Gen. Lee Sang Cho of the North Korean army and Gen. Hsieh Fang of the Chinese Communist "volunteers."

Communist agreement to the UN proposal for a subcommittee was interpreted as the best break so far toward resolving a 16-meeting deadlock over the location of an armistice buffer zone.

The Communists hitherto have adamantly refused to discuss any other cease-fire line than one along the 38th parallel with a buffer zone extending six miles on either side.

Chief UN Negotiator Vice Admiral C. Turner Joy has called for a buffer zone generally along the present battle line running up to 30 miles north of the parallel in the east, but has expressed a willingness to compromise.

The first step toward breaking the deadlock—agreement to turn the problem over to a subcommittee—came today at the 26th meeting of the truce negotiators in Kaesong.

Joy had suggested the subcommittee as a way out 24 hours earlier. He proposed that the smaller group work informally around rather than across a table and thus get away from the formal atmosphere of the main negotiations, where all speeches are put on the record.

"We suggest that the two delegations jointly charge this subcommittee to make recommendations to the two delegations as to ways and means of emerging from the present deadlock," Joy said.

"It is our thought that neither delegation be bound by implication or contract to honor the recommendations . . . such recommendations would, of course require ratification by the delegations."

MARCH OF EVENTS

Mexican Oil May Help Make Up Iranian Loss

PWB May Get Control Of 'Voice of America'

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—United States officials who should know predict that this government will offer financial and technical aid to Mexico's nationalized oil industry to step up production and, in part, make up for losses suffered in Iran's nationalization of petroleum.

Secretary Chapman

Thus the losses suffered by one nation—Iran—through nationalization may benefit another nation—Mexico—which lost needed United States aid when it expropriated state-owned oil properties years ago.

Preliminary negotiations are believed to be behind Interior Secretary Oscar L. Chapman's recent hurried trip south of the border.

A United States-Mexico oil agreement would be a complete reversal of administration policy, which has so far opposed any aid to Mexican oil.

Assistance to the Mexican National Oil Corporation, known as Pemex to thousands of U. S. tourists, would probably come from $150 million in loans earmarked for almost every other type of economic development in Mexico. Part of this fund, or additional credits, might be diverted to petroleum for pipe line equipment and other facilities to increase the volume of oil moving from Mexico's fields.

● PROPAGANDA MERGER?—Former Secretary of the Army Gordon Gray's new Psychological Warfare Board is expected to attempt a consolidation of the United States' various overseas publicity agencies. Congressional leaders are mapping a plan to move the State department's Voice of America to the PWB. However, a fight is expected from State.

Proponents of the move feel that it would be easier to get funds for the Voice if it is not in the State department, favorite target of congressional economists. Many supporters of the Voice feel that it suffers because of its sponsorship.

The new Gray board, which will work with the Central Intelligence Agency, also may take over the Defense department's overseas information sections, as well as those of other departments.

● IKE AGAIN—There seems to be more than an even chance that the name of Gen. Dwight David Eisenhower will be entered in the Oregon presidential primary next May 16.

If Ike's hat is thrown in the ring, the tossing will have to be before Feb. 16—the required 90 days before the primary for filing the names of all candidates.

Supporters of the European supreme commander are anxious to test his drawing power and popularity in an actual vote. They also want to know what ticket on which to run him.

A candidate's name may be entered in the Oregon primary on a petition with no more than 1,000 signatures, and his consent is not needed. In addition, no Oregon candidate can run on more than one ticket. Whether he approves or not, Eisenhower probably would have to indicate a preference for the Democratic or Republican party if Oregon petitions are started in his behalf.

So far, Ike has wisely pointed out that he has a job to do to whip SHAPE into shape, and that as a soldier, his job comes first.

● COSTLY GUZZLING—Rep. Frank T. Bow (R), O., wants to know how many hangovers—in addition to the big one for the taxpayer—were caused by the 122 million cocktails served by the State department since 1942.

That's the figure Bow arrived at after adding up the $6 million spent by the department on liquor in the last nine years. Bow estimated that the $6 million bought about 4,800,000 "fifths" of tax-free whisky at something like $125 a bottle.

He looked into the matter further and concluded that the 4,800,000 "fifths" would provide about 122 million cocktails if sparingly mixed.

LOOKING ... AT LIFE

BY ERICH BRANDEIS

"The reason some women are nervous is that they spend ten dollars worth of energy on a ten cent task." Dr. Walter C. Alvarez of the Mayo Clinic said a few days ago.

"They shop too long to save a quarter," he told the women attending a meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs at Chautauqua. "Then they come home so terribly tired that they shriek at their children and fuss at a perfectly good husband."

He also warned the ladies "to make decisions quickly and with the least effort," and that they "need to avoid needless annoyances and conflicts."

I haven't been able to check on Dr. Alvarez, but I'd like to make you a bet that he isn't married.

Or if he is, he ought to stay home a little more and watch the "needless annoyances and conflicts" a wife has to go through every day.

Just for the fun of it—my fun, that is—I watched my own wife for needless "annoyances and conflicts" today.

And I shall not here mention the greatest "annoyance and conflict" of them all—me, the husband.

I started to watch as I was getting dressed.

Suddenly I let out a yell.

"Look! Button missing on the shirt!"

Off comes shirt. Annoyance No. 1.

Button has to be sewed on. After breakfast I go out into the garden. Everything is pretty dry. I turn on the hose to spray. A shriek comes out of the first floor window.

"Stop! Don't you see you are spraying right through the open window. Everything is soaking wet."

I sink away, first turning off the hose. Annoyance No. 2.

The laundry comes. The wife checks it. I hear her telephoning.

"Your man delivered the wrong laundry to me."

She is informed at the other end that he would deliver the right bundle next Tuesday. This is Friday and company is coming over the weekend. We need the stuff.

I can't know what the outcome of the conversation has been—but my wife's face is red and she is shaking.

Annoyance No. 3

Three youngsters come in from next door.

"We are Indians" they tell us. Their faces are a mass of weird, red smears. Somehow they got hold of their mother's lipstick and painted even little Tucky's face. Tucky is just 18 months old.

Who is going to wash it off? The one who, according to Dr. Alvarez, must "make decisions quickly and with the least effort."

In Los Angeles a fellow left his home in 1936 to get a morning paper. He isn't back yet.

So, after 15 years, his wife has decided to sue for divorce. She thinks he has deserted her.

If she had had Dr. Alvarez's advice she might have come to a quicker decision.

AT "WAR" WITH C. OF C.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 16.—The United States Army is at "war" these days with the Council of State Chambers of Commerce.

It all started when the Council recently called public attention to what it considered "over-buying" by the Army of such items as can-openers, paint, belts, combat boots, pepper, butter and oleo.

Archibald S. Alexander, Army Undersecretary, defending the following purchases about which the Council complained:

1. 68,000,000 can openers.
2. 6,000,000 gallons of paint (mostly in small-size cans and ordered for delivery on a 60-day "emergency" basis).
3. 4,636,000 web belts and 11,753,000 pairs of boots.
4. 1,917,000 pounds of pepper.

5. 5,000,000 pounds of oleo at 25½ cents per pound (while the government was selling Italy 5,500,000 pounds of butter at 15 cents per pound).

Alexander defends the can-opener purchase largely on the basis that they cost but two cents each and are designed for one-time use. The Army admitted, however, that soldiers often use them "for opening several cans."

Alexander had to admit there was an error in ordering the 6,000,000 gallons of paint on 60-day delivery and said the order was later changed to allow more reasonable delivery. He defended the need for small-size cans, however, despite the fact that any home-owner knows paint is a great deal cheaper when purchased in gallon or larger sizes.

The story gets a little tangled when the 4,636,000 belts come up for discussion, as it does with the 11,753,000 pairs of boots.

But it is the pepper argument which should be of most interest to the housewife. The Army claims it allots each one pound of pepper per year. Just what they do with it is not quite clear, since annual consumption in the United States is estimated to be about 2.8 ounces per person per year.

So if you have been wondering why the price of pepper has ballooned since the Korean war, it might be well to ask the Army. There would seem to be no question but what huge Army pepper purchases have contributed greatly to the high cost and short supply of the seasoning on the civilian market.
